Is there a court order in place or pending which affects the custody or residency of the child? YES NO

A certified copy of the court order relevant to custody of the child is to be submitted to the school office once acceptance to Gesu Catholic School is complete. The document must contain the court order which includes the case number, visitation rights and school access and contact information. The judge's signature must be present and a court seal must appear on the document. It is the responsibility of the parents to inform the principal of any subsequent modifications during the child's enrollment at Gesu Catholic School. A complete copy of the school procedures dealing with family custody issues are included in the Gesu Catholic School Family Handbook.
